CIRO' THE SCENTS OF THE VINEYARDS

The village of Ciro' once called Krimisa, is one of the most important wine districts of the South. It was in these places, pleasant and generous fruit, where the flavours of tamarind and citrus blend with the scent of oleander, which developed the ancient culture of Ancient Greece. The vast expanses of fertile land led the Greeks to baptize this earth with the name Enotria, "land of wine". Even today, the entire territory is surrounded by crops of Gaglioppo, important and ancient grapes from which we get the "red Ciro'", ruby red wine from those who, for his extraordinary delicacy, was offered as a gift to the winning athletes at the Olympic contests. It was the wine of Pythagoras, it was the wine of Milone the strongest athlete of antiquity. The tour includes a short visit to the Saracen markets, where once opened banks exchanged and anchorage for the Turkish markets and today are home to theatre and singing. It continues with a visit to ancient cellars, where you can sip fine wines doc and taste the flavours of our tradition.
